

Star Island Memorial Courtyard Remembrances

An over-grown stone enclosure that was once used as an animal corral or garden has been reclaimed for use as a Memorial Courtyard. The space is accessible from the boardwalk that leads from the units to Marshman. Shoalers may honor and remember loved ones in this space by placing either an engraved teak bench or an engraved river stone in a sea of stones in the center of the Memorial Courtyard surrounding the Rutledge Star.

The order form for the engraved river stone is on the opposite side of this description.

Please complete the form and place it in a donations envelope with your payment and bring to the front desk. For more information about placing a memorial bench on Star

please contact Angela Matthews, Director of Development at amatthews@starisland.org
